MINORU FIRST IN THE DERBY

KING EDWARD'S GRAND COLT PREVAILS IN A DESPERATE FINISH WITH LOUVIERS.

Sir Martin Unluckily Falls When Going Well in the Leading Division-Great Joy

Over King's Success.

London, Eng., May 26.—In a desperately contested finish. King Edward's fine colt, Minoru, today followed up his Two Thousand Guinens success by winning the Epsom Derly, with W. Raphael's Louviers but a head behind and Lord Miehelham's William the Fourth a lapped-on third. In all respects it was a sense world's most famous race. Not the least feature was the falling of Sir Martin at Tattenham Corner when going well in the front division, the accident coming from being crowded and slipping. The track was soft from a heavy rainfall that lasted through the forenoon and this may have played a past in the accident that put the American candidate out of the trunning. He was the actual post favorite at 3 to 1, with Minoru at 7 to 2.

The field of fifteen was sent away to an exceptionally good start. Brooklands made the running for the first mile, with the king's colt well placed or in improved his position and, stalling off a strong challenge by Louviers, won by the shortest of short heads.

As soon as the horses entered the straight and the oru improved his position and, stalling off a strong challenge by Louviers, won by the shortest of short heads.

As soon as the horses entered the straight and the crowd saw the king's colors in front, cheers spread over the Downs and grew in volume as Minoru neared the judges' box.

The victory was so narrow that there was a moment's hesitation pending the judges' verdict. But when the royal number was holsted to the top of the board a great roar burst out afresh and followed the king as he left the royal box and led his third Derby champion to the unsaddling enclosure. The king's statement of waste, was the control of the control of the statement of the was first reported that Sir Martin and was shaken and somewhat bruised. He was picked up and brought in by two of the track officials. It was at a first reported that Sir Martin had been injured, but this was a mistake. The colt escaped without hurt. Last year, over a fast course. Signorinetta won in 2:394, but the slow going today precluded fast time and the race was run in 2:425.

Although unlucky in the Derby there was some coolation for the Americans. The Stewards' lixtude of 1.009, soyercigns, for three-year-olds, last wine and forts four yards of the Derby course, was suited and forts four yards of the Derby course, was suited and forts four yards of the Derby course, was suited and forts four yards of the Derby course, was suited and forts four yards of the Derby course, was suited and forts four yards of the Derby course, was suited and forts four yards of the Derby course, was suited and four four parts, with James Total Lord Cut-naryon's chestnut gelding, Mustababa, by Oberon or Uncle Mac—Chatty, third. Mr. Whithy also won the Epson Town Plate of 200 sovereigns with Bobbin from seventeen other starters.

New York, May 26.—Racing men and the general public were greatly depressed when the news came that Sir Martin was unplaced in the Epsom Berby. The acute disappointment over the apparently overwhelming defeat of the American champion was somewhat allayed when later report told of his elimination from the race by falling a quarter of a nile from the finish. Additional balm came with the knowledge that the son of Ogden—Lady Sterling had been a formidable factor in the great race from the start and was running strong and lapped on the inside of Minoru, the ultimate winner, when the distressing accident at Tattenham Corner occurred. Complete reports reveal that the downfall of Sir Martin, which was the atual favorite at post time, we due to crowding and the apprehensions of the condition of the content of the Martin's defeat philosophically, made this statement:

"Well, that's what I call hard luck. Tattenham corner was always a dangerous shot on the Deriv course, "Skeets' Martin came to grief trying to save ground by hugging the rail, It's too bad. Six Martin was always a bear in the run from the head of the stretch home. He was famous for his closing sprint, and I don't believe there is a horse in the world that could have beaten him up that incline had he stood up. I wish he could have stood, up. so that we could have seen just what he could have done. Anyhow, as long as Sir Martin could not win we are glad that the greatest sportsman the world has ever known won it. Nobody begrudges King Edward's hard-carned victory. The race proves that Minoru and Lowlers are both great racers and we can hope, that Sir Martin will reverse today's running when they all meet ngalh."

It. Jones, the successful post, was sixteenth on II. Jones, the successful post, was sixteenth on III. Jones, the successful post, was sixteenth on 249 mounts.

A conservative estimate places the amount of was just behind bin, will large places the amount of money wagered by Americans on Sir Martin's chances at $300,000, and much of that was sent over from America by turfmen. Among those who forwarded money was John W. Gates, who sent $5,000 to be placed on Sir Martin, and accompanied it with the declaration that he was the best horse ever shipped from America. The promised description of the running of the Derby at the Waldorf-Astoria did not materialize.

Patrons of the Course Cheer Lustily When Minoru's Victory Is Announced.

Before the horses went to the post in the second race Earl Grey and some of the prominent members of the jockey club assembled in the stewards' stand and after Secretary Fraser addressed the crowd the earl proposed three cheers for the king, which was answered with great cheering. The royal ensign was then run up on a flag staff which frad been erected in the infield directly opnosite the grandstand.

Problems in Thursday's Brooklyn Handicap.

The present Belmont Park meeting will come to an end Wednesday, June 2. with the running of the $20,000 Belmont Stakes as the star event of the day. The Brooklyn Jockey Club's spring meeting will begin the day following. The program book of the meeting following the Belmont Park pattern in providing for racing on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays only except the meeting following the Emont Park pattern in providing for racing on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays only except an among the New York clubs some time back, but results at Belmont Park have proved so satisfactory that it is believed nearly all of the intervening days will be filled with overnight programs at Gravesend.

The stake races for the opening day, Thursday, June 3, are the Criterion, for two-year-olds at five furlongs, and the Brooklyn Handicap, The Criterion has thirty-three nominations, of which Sou, Madeline Levy, Mexonan, Calypte and Greenvale have aiready raced well in public. The Brooklyn Handicap, now a gnaranteed event of $5,000 instead of its $25,000 of the two parts of the contested by a crack field. Last year Celt, with 106 pounds up, won it with great case by a length and a half and ran its mile and a quarter in 2:041. The next three horses, half lengths apart, were Fair Play, 99 poonds. Master Robert, 95, and King James, 98. Of the four, Fair Play is in England and the other three are in this year's Brooklyn and all likely to start. Celt is top weight, with 127 pounds, King James has improved much more than Celt and Master Robert has been to competing with Celt and Master Robert has been for competing with Celt and Master Robert he is meeting much better horses than those opposed to him in California, Aside from the interest attaching to their coming together again is the further point that if Celt wins he will be the first horse to competing with Celt and Master Robert he is meeting much better horses than those opposed to him in California, Aside from the interest attaching to their com approach being Irish Lad's first in 1903 and second in 1904.

Other horses of great merit in the race are Jack Atkin, 119 pounds: Frank Gill, 116; Restigouche, 112; Hilarious, 105; Brother Jonathan, 104; Fitz Hilzhert, 103; High Private, 102; Berkeley, 102; Joe Madden, 198; High Private, 102; High Private, 198; Joe Mandieapped horse in the race, Brother Jonathan is probably a better horse than the average racing man deems him and is under extremely shrewd management. Hilarious, Fitz Herbert and High Private are good three-year-olds, but harshly treated in comparison with the imposts assigned such cracks as Fair Play Master Robert and King James last Stakes, it is quite safe to say that Fayette would have been asked to carry ten pounds more than have been given him. One of the real problems of the race is Half Sovereign. This very speedy filly has simply been turned loose with her slight impost of 55 pounds, provided she can stay a mile and a quarter, something the handicapper evidently thinks she cannot do.

GOSSIP FROM THE NEW YORK TRACKS.

New York, May 26.—James R. Keene will start a "dark one" in the Belmont Stakes next Wednesday. This is Sunbury, a three-year-old maiden by Kingston-Editha, reputed to be exceedingly fast. Philip J. Dwyer announced that there would be four, and probably five, days of racing each week at the Brooklyn Jockey-Glub's meeting.

Archie Zimmer is contemplating a trip to England next week, where he will look for an opening in his line.

The itinerary of S. S. Howland's coming trip abroad will include Japan, India, Australia, Buenos Ayres and many other places of importance. He leaves immediately after the close of the Belmont Park meeting and will be absent from America for about ten months.

T. D. Sullivan sailed for England today on the Mauretania, to be gone ten weeks.

The rumor will not down that there will be six days of racing each week at Gravesend, but P. J. Dwyer says that the program will be four days each week if the public will support the extra day not provided for in the book for the meeting.

DOLLY SPANKER'S STAR DAYS ARE OVER.

Trainer Thomas Healey, after Dolly Spanker had finished last in a race at Belmont Park Monday, was ready to allow that the old Kingston gelding is probably all in.

"I won't run Dolly again on a big track," Mr. Healey said. "He does not appear to be of any account any more. I think I will send him to the hunt meetings to run in amateur races on the flat. He has the right conformation for steeplechasing and manages weight cleverly, but he jumps too cautiously to make good in the field."

JOCKEY HORN SUES BOB TUCKER.

Louisville, Ky., May 26.—Suit for $1,070 damages, alleged to have been incorred through a breach of contract, has been filed against Robert Tucker, turfman, by Earl Horn, formerly a jockey, The plain iff recites that in 1903 be made a contract to ride for Mr. Tucker, the contract extending over a period of three years. He claims he was discharged by Mr. Tucker at the end of the first year. He sues for the salary he would have made if the contract had remained unbroken.

HARVARD DAY AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., May 26.—Next Friday will be Harvard Day at Latonia. The fourth race on the card, will be called the Harvard Purse, and the club-house, judges' and timers' stand will be draped in crimson, the college color. Princeton Day was a big thing at Louisville, but it is expected that Harvard Day at Latonia will eclipse it.

The appearance of the name of Practical among the nominations of August Belmont for the Suburban may indicate that that big chesinut has recently shown trainer John Whalen something in the proportions, and last year John Joyner considered film a promising coit. He ran disappointingly several times, but that may have been because he did not care for the two-year-old distances. He is one of the Belmont eligibles for the $30,000 Belmont Stakes.

HILABIOUS GRAVESEND ENGAGEMENTS

HILARIOUS' GRAVESEND ENGAGEMENTS.

New York, May 26.—James R. Keene's Hilarious, winner of the Withers, is now generally considered the best three-year-old in training in this country. His encagements at Gravesend include the Brooklyn Handicap, the Broadway Stakes and the Carlton Stakes. In the Broadway Stakes and the Carlton Stakes, In the Broadway his most formidable rivals include Joe Madden, Fitz Herbert, Harrigan, Fashban Plate, Field Mouse and Wise Mason, while in the Carlton the Voter colt will probably meet Fayette, Joe Madden, Bom Homme and others.

It is thought that Mr. Keene will depend upon Hilarious to win the Brooklyn Handicap for him. Mr. Keene's Celt, the top weight under 127 pounds, has not raced this spring, and it is not trainer James Rowe's hablit to start a horse not 'seasoned by actual reading in a Brooklyn. Couroy, Superman, Celt and Belind each raced at Morris Park and Belinont Park won. It is reasonable in the Proceeding of the Subardon, as Ballot was saved for last season from the Subardon, as Ballot was saved for last season's race at Sheepshead.

NEW TRACK OPENED AT BERLIN.

The Kaiser and Other Dignitaries Assist in Dedica tion of Million Dollar Race Track.

Berlin's latest bid for metropolitan greatness is an elaborate new race course, to be known as "Ruthelchen." It is stimuted near Spandau, in the pretty western outskirts of the German capital.

The projectors, a group of aristocratic sportsmen and society leaders, make the proud claim that "Ruhelchen" will take immediate rank with Epsom, Newmarket, Longchamps, Chantilly, Sheepshead Bay and other world-famed tracks. Horse racing has not in the past been a conspicuous feature of Berlin sporting life. There are two tracks aiready in existence—Hoppegarten and Karlshorst—but they have never been specially fashionable. "Ruhelchen," which has just been opened, is to supply the missing offe.

The German crown prince, who has become the official head of all sporting activities in the father-land, is expected to identify himself conspicuously with the destinies of "Ruheleben." If he does, the track's success will be assured. The destines of the royal house-lock cruck and navy dignituries, together with leaders in the financial affairs of the empire, participated in the festivities incidental to the occasion.
